Foreword

A BIBLIOGRAPHY of Robert Owen, the Socialist, born at Newtown, Montgomeryshire, was prepared by the National Library Staff, acting on a suggestion made by the Rt. Hon. John Burns, and printed in March, 1914. Mr. A. J. Hawkes, now Librarian of the Wigan Public Libraries, was mainly responsible for the collection and arrangement of the bibliography. It was known that the work was far from complete, but it was considered desirable to print it as a starting point for the gathering of further information.

The expectation that additions would be made has been justified. A careful record has been kept of all additions, with the result that the present issue compares with the former as follows :—

		1st ed.	2nd ed.
Part I.	R. Owen's writings ..	149	175
,, II.	Periodicals written or edited by R. O. ..	11	12
,, III.	Books and pamphlets on R. O.	279	378
,, IV.	Articles in periodicals on R. O.	28	64
		467	629

A slight modification has been made in the arrangement of Part I. Each separate work has been given a single number, whether in one or more editions, and the chronological order of the list has been emphasised by placing the year of publication above the output for each year.

Valuable information has been supplied by :—

The British Library of Political Science (University of London).

The Goldsmiths Library (University of London).

The Manchester Public Libraries.

The Newtown (Montgomery) Free Library.

The Rev. Richard Roberts, of Crouch End (who kindly allowed the use of a manuscript bibliography compiled by himself).

Extensive use has been made of :—
